

REVIEW

1. The Hebrew name for our Heavenly Father is _____, and the Hebrew name used for the pre-mortal Savior was _____.
2. The Hebrew word for “created” is better translated “_____” or “_____”.
3. The first 10 patriarchs are:
4. The descendants of Shem, son of Noah, are called _____, and the descendants of _____, great-grandson of Shem, are called _____.
5. Through _____, son of Noah, came descendants who were not permitted to hold the priesthood.

ABRAHAM

6. Abram’s father was _____, who worshiped _____.
7. The first 11 chapters of Genesis cover ___ generations from Adam to Noah and ___ generations from Noah’s son Shem to Abram. The remaining ___ chapters of Genesis cover ___ generations and about _____ years.
8. Abram married _____, who was his _____, the _____ of his brother Haran. Haran’s son _____ was treated like a son and was sometimes called “_____” by Abram. Because Sarai was Haran’s _____, she was also properly referred to as Abram’s _____.
9. Because of famine, Abram lived in _____ and _____.
10. Abram received revelations through the _____ and _____, which are literally translated as “_____ and _____”.
11. Pharaoh sent Abram out of _____ with all their possessions, “very rich in cattle, in silver, and in _____.”
12. When Lot and Abram could not live together, Abram let Lot choose which land to take. Lot chose the plain of _____ because it was fertile and Lot “pitched [his] tent toward _____.”
13. Abram went to Lot’s rescue, and when he returned victorious, he was greeted by two kings. One was the king of _____, and the other was the king of _____. The righteous king of _____ was _____, who had ordained Abram to the high priesthood and to whom Abram had paid a _____ of the goods God had blessed him to regain. Abram returned to the king of _____ what he had retrieved for him, accepting compensation only for what they had eaten and for the service by three men who had helped him.
14. Abram had been promised “seed”, which means _____, but that promise was not fulfilled until Abram had sons by _____ (Ishmael) and by Sarai (_____).
15. Abram’s name, which means “_____” was changed by Jehovah to Abraham, which means “_____”.