

1. What does הַאֲשֵׁר mean?
2. Who said, "Great are the words of Isaiah." When?
3. When did Isaiah live?
4. Matching: Some of the prophecies of Isaiah

<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 1:18	a. In the millennium, the wolf and the lamb will lie down together.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 2:1-4	b. God's thoughts are higher than man's.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 11:1-5	c. The Messiah will willingly obey the Father and allow Himself to suffer persecution.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 6:8	d. Isaiah sees the latter-day temple ("mountain of the Lord's house"), gathering of Israel, and Millennial judgment and peace
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 7:14-16	e. John the Baptist quoted this passage as referring to him. (John 1:23)
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 9:6-7	f. Jesus declares this passage to refer to Him. (Luke 4:16-21)
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 11:6-8	g. When Isaiah is called, he says, "Here am I, send me."
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 29:4	h. The Messiah will be born of a virgin.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 29:13-14	i. Scarlet sins become snowy white.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 40:3-4	j. At his second coming, the Messiah will come in red apparel.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 50:5-6	k. The Messiah will be wounded for our transgressions.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 53:3-5	l. A marvelous work and wonder predicted.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 55:8-9	m. The words of the Book of Mormon "speak out of the ground".
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 61:1-3	n. Christ will be called "The mighty God" and "The Prince of Peace" and will sit on David's throne forever.
<input type="checkbox"/> Isaiah 63:1-3	o. This passages foretells of Christ and of Joseph Smith.

5. Write at least three sentences explaining and why Isaiah is an important prophet and why it is accurate to say that "great are the words of Isaiah."

6. Write at least three sentences explaining why listening to modern prophets is important for us.