9. What are priesthood “keys”?

“The Priesthood in general is the _____ given to man to act for God. Every man ordained to any degree of the Priesthood, has this _____ to him.

“But it is necessary that every act performed under this authority shall be done at the proper time and place, in the proper way, and after the proper order. The power of _____ these labors constitutes the _____ of the Priesthood. In their fulness, the keys are held by only _____ at a time, the _____ and _____ of the Church. He may delegate any _____ of this power to another, in which case that person holds the keys of that particular labor. Thus, the president of a temple, the president of a stake, the bishop of a ward, the president of a mission, the president of a quorum, each holds the keys of the labors performed in that particular body or locality” (Gospel Doctrine, 5th ed. [1939], 136).
